

Certificate of completion

Anna Henriksson

has successfully completed the U4 self-paced online course on

Addressing corruption in the health sector

This 4-hour online course, composed of 8 modules, equips learners with practical skills to promote transparency and accountability in the health sector. It explores common drivers and types of corruption, their impact on health outcomes, and offers concrete strategies for prevention and response, drawing on real-world examples.

Date 21/07/25

